

The following individuals are nominated to serve on the 2024 Board of Directors. They are comprised of Past President and Officers of the ECCA; HOA representatives who have represented their subdivisions for many years; individuals who have organized their subdivisions and surrounding community to actively participate in proposed zoning changes in their area; community active individuals who are willing to dedicate hours of volunteer time to ECCA serving on committees; and ECCA members who have been involved for many years. To avoid any implied or conflict of interest there are no elected officials or paid county employees nominated to serve on the BOD.

Benjamin Alper: Benjamin Alper is the founder and managing partner of Alper Legal, P.C., a law firm located here in Cobb County. A graduate of Emory Law School, Ben specializes in defending individuals charged with State and Federal crimes in the State of Georgia. Ben is an experienced litigator with experience that includes the U.S. Attorney's Office, Northern District of Georgia, the Georgia Attorney General's Office, Criminal Justice Division, and the Northern Virginia Capital Defender's Office. In his spare time, Ben reviews Shakespeare performances. He and his wife Erin have lived in Cobb County for 12 years. They have two children who attend Tritt Elementary.

Jacquelyn Bettadapur: Jacquelyn Bettadapur and her husband, Shailesh, moved to East Cobb in 2010 with their two sons after living as expats in Asia for nearly 10 years. Jacquelyn holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Cal Berkeley and an MBA from the Kellogg School at Northwestern University. Previous work experience includes combustion design engineering, management consulting, and environmental policy development. While living in Singapore, she developed and directed the docent training program at the Asian Civilizations Museum and served on the PTA of the Singapore American School. She served in leadership on the Executive Committee for the Cobb County Democratic Party for six years.

Chris Ensley: Chris Ensley has worked in financial services his entire career with experience in banking, consulting, and payments. Currently Chris is the Director of Product Management with InComm, responsible for a debit network that processes millions of transactions and billions of dollars annually through major retail partners including Walmart, CVS, Walgreens, 7 Eleven & Dollar General. An active volunteer, Chris is a ministry leader at his church, Scouts BSA, Community Affairs representative for his subdivision and is presently on ECCA's Board of Directors. In his spare time enjoys spending time with his wife, four children and dog. He and his family moved to East Cobb in 2003.

Jill Flamm: Jill has served on the Board of Directors for 10 years and is currently Treasurer and has represented Camden Place subdivision for 21 years. She is the District 2 appointee to the Recreation Board. In addition, she has served on various county committees for code amendments, 2040 Comprehensive plan revisions and the CPT 2040 update. Previously she worked for Illinois Bell in various engineering and planning positions and was the CFO for a small company in GA. She and her husband Eric have two children, three grandchildren and have lived in East Cobb for 33 years.

Len Greski: Len currently leads the Architecture practice at LeadingAgile, the leader in helping companies generate value through business agility. He has lived in East Cobb for the past seven years, and currently is president of the Clary Lakes Homeowners Association, and serves on the Dean's Advisory Board for the College of Computing and Software Engineering at Kennesaw State University. Len received Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees in Sociology from the University of Illinois at Chicago with concentrations in Organization Theory, Research Methods and Statistics.

Richard 'Ric' Grome: Ric has been an active member of East Cobb Civic Association since 2017 and was first elected to the Board of Directors in 2018. He has been active with the Chimney Springs Homeowners' Association from 2015 through 2020. Ric retired from owning his own consulting firm and prior to that from top management positions in Elekta, Inc. He was honorably discharged from the United States Army in 1975. Ric and his wife Margie have been residents of East Cobb for 37 years.

Karen Hallacy: Karen has been actively involved in the Cobb Community since 1995. She served on the Neighborhood Safety Commission for over 15 years and now serves on the Cobb Development Authority. She has volunteered in the schools and education system in a variety of roles including PTA President, several Cobb Board of Education task forces, Cobb BOE Legislative Liaison, and the Governor's Arts Council Task Force. She is also active on her HOA Board and has been a member of East Cobb Civic Association for 15 years. She is an experienced parliamentarian, conflict mediator and moderator.

Helga Hong: Head of Cemetery Preservation since 1993 and volunteer for Keep Cobb Beautiful for 20 years. Helga and her late husband David have been a part of ECCA since inception and she presently serves on ECCA's Board. They have been residents of Cobb County since 1974 and have two married daughters.

Chris Lindstrom: Chris has served on the ECCA Board since 2020. She retired from IBM after 25 years in various roles and now spends time with hobbies and traveling. Chris grew up in New Jersey, transferred to Miami, and finally landed in Marietta. Chris has lived in Marietta for 49 years and is married to Andy. She is very fortunate to have two sons who both live in the area with their families.